Jayapal Introduces “Medicare for All” Bill

House Progressive Caucus co-chair Pramila Jayapal (D-Wash.) formally introduced her “Medicare for All” legislation last week. The 120-page Medicare for All Act of 2019 (H.R. 1384) would replace almost all private and employer-sponsored health insurance with a government-run health insurance system within two years. Every American would get an expanded array of health care for life, including long-term care. The bill does not detail how the overhaul would be financed. Jayapal has said that she plans to release a separate list of potential pay-fors. The legislation is an expansion on previously-introduced versions of Medicare for All. It currently has 107 Democratic cosponsors, and Jayapal hopes to garner the support of at least 40 more House Democrats.

Jayapal has received assurances from House leadership that the Budget and Rules committees will hold hearings on the bill. While he has supported similar measures in the past, House Budget Committee Chairman John Yarmuth (D-Ky.) has expressed reservations regarding Jayapal’s new legislation. He does not believe H.R. 1384 is comparable to the current Medicare system, given the elimination of private insurance and cost-sharing. He stated that his panel plans to hold a hearing on all measures that would expand the Medicare program, possibly in June. While Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.) supports hearings on the legislation, she has also expressed some skepticism about the proposal, specifically regarding the cost of the bill. Pelosi has made recent remarks in favor of a government-run public option, rather than a full-scale single-payer health care system.

More centrist House Democrats, who have not signed on to the Medicare for All bill, would prefer to focus on improving the current health care system, including passing incremental changes to expand coverage and exploring the formation of an option for government-run insurance. The moderate New Democrat Coalition, a caucus of 101 lawmakers, asked the leadership of the House Energy and Commerce, Ways and Means, and Education and Workforce committees to prioritize stabilization of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) and the individual health insurance marketplace. The coalition urged their colleagues to bring down costs for consumers through the creation of a dedicated reinsurance program, additional premium assistance, more options for individuals nearing Medicare eligibility age, and reform of bidding areas to encourage competition. The lawmakers also expressed support for legislation (H.R. 5155) that would create state innovation grants that allow states the flexibility to experiment with new initiatives such as auto-enrollment or regional exchanges.

April 2 Policy Summit on America's Healthcare Cost Crisis

Healthcare and business leaders, patient advocates, and policy experts will convene in Washington, DC on April 2nd to explore the impact of high healthcare costs on individuals, businesses, the economy, and the state of public health. Participants will map out immediate and long-term policy recommendations supporting improved healthcare quality and lower costs, including for prescription drugs. “High Costs, Broken Promises: West Health’s 2019 Healthcare Costs Innovation Summit” will feature the unveiling of results from a new national survey from Gallup and the West Health Institute on how skyrocketing healthcare costs are impacting the daily lives of Americans. Participants will hear from keynote Andy Slavitt, former Acting Administrator for the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, and speakers from Humana, Walmart, and Intermountain Healthcare. Former Governor of Ohio, John Kasich and former Secretaries of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Mike Leavitt, Sylvia Mathews Burwell and Kathleen Sebelius will also share their perspectives. For more information and to register for this free public event, visit www.hcidc.org.

House Passes Health Care Fraud, Poison Control Measures

The House of Representatives passed two pieces of healthcare-related legislation last week. H.R. 525, the Strengthening the Healthcare Fraud Prevention Task Force Act of 2019, would codify a public-private partnership responsible for identifying and preventing health care fraud through data and information sharing. The Healthcare Fraud Prevention Partnership (HFPP) is currently operated by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) and provides a forum for the federal government, state agencies, law enforcement, private health insurance plans, and health care and fraud associations to share successful anti-fraud practices. H.R. 501, the Poison Center Network Enhancement Act of 2019, would reauthorize the national network of Poison Control Centers. Both bills passed by voice vote.

Senators Comment on Insulin and FDA Biosimilars Guidance

A bipartisan group of senators have written to the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) regarding the pace of approvals for generic insulin products. The lawmakers requested that the agency amend a 2018 agency guidance that was meant to ease the approval pathway for biosimilar products. The letter expressed concern that while the guidance will bring new insulin options onto the market in 2020, it could delay the introduction of insulin generics in the short-term. The letter was signed by Sens. Dick Durbin (D-Ill.), Kevin Cramer (R-N.D.), Bill Cassidy (R-La.), and Tina Smith (D-Minn.).

Pallone Requests Details on HIV/AIDS Initiative

House Energy and Commerce Committee Chairman Frank Pallone (D-N.J.) is asking the administration for more details on its plan to end the HIV/AIDS epidemic by 2030. Pallone seeks clarification regarding how existing Trump Administration policies, such as proposed budget cuts to federal HIV/AIDS programs, a proposed rule that could impact access to HIV medication, Medicaid waivers, and recent changes to the Title X abortion funding, might impact the initiative to end HIV in the U.S. The letter also requests a briefing from HHS Secretary Alex Azar. Pallone requested a response from HHS by March 11.

Lawmakers Push for Delay of Health Insurance Tax (HIT)

A bipartisan group of freshman senators have written to Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-Ky.), Minority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-N.Y.), Senate Finance Chairman Chuck Grassley (R-Iowa), and Ranking Member Ron Wyden (D-Ore.) urging the chamber to take up legislation to delay the health insurance tax (HIT) beyond 2020. The lawmakers expressed concerns about the potential impact of the HIT on seniors and small businesses. The letter was signed by freshman senators Krysten Sinema (D-Ariz.), Kevin Cramer (R-N.D.), Marsha Blackburn (R-Tenn.), Mike Braun (R-Ind.), Martha McSally (R-Ariz.), Mitt Romney (R-Utah), and Jacky Rosen (D-Nev.). Additionally, legislation was introduced last week to delay the tax until after 2021. H.R. 1398 was introduced in the House by Reps. Ami Bera (D-Calif.), Josh Gottheimer (D-N.J.), Jackie Walorski (R-Ind.), and Kenny Marchant (R-Texas) and S. 172 has been introduced in the Senate.

Ensuring Lasting Smiles Reintroduced

Sens. Tammy Baldwin (D-Wis.), Joni Ernst (R-Iowa), Sherrod Brown (D-Ohio), and Lisa Murkowski (R-Alaska) have reintroduced bipartisan legislation to ensure health insurance for the treatment of individuals born with congenital anomalies or birth defects, such as cleft lip and palate, skeletal and maxillofacial abnormalities, facial paralysis, microtia, hypodontia, and craniosynostosis. The Ensuring Lasting Smiles Act (ELSA) would close a coverage gap that occurs when health plans deny claims for oral or dental-related procedures deeming them cosmetic in nature or covered under a separate dental plan. Bipartisan companion legislation has been introduced in the House by Reps. Collin Peterson (D-Minn.) and Denver Riggleman (R-Va.).
